PRACTITIONER WORKSHOP WORKBOOK

Advanced Techniques

Beyond the Basics of Energy Healing

MILA'S HEALING TOUCH

This workbook is for practitioners and students who have completed the foundational workshops. You already know the basics. This is where you go deeper.

MY INTENTION FOR THIS SESSION

What do you want to step into today?

WELCOME

You Made It to the Advanced Level

A practitioner-level workshop with Mila Velazquez, MSPT, CECP

You have already learned the Emotion Code basics. You know how to muscle test. You know how to find and release trapped emotions. Now it is time to trust yourself enough to go further.

This workshop is about taking everything you already know and making it yours. Not just following the protocol - using your intuition, your environment, your tools, and your connection to the quantum field to go places the standard chart might never take you.

Mila has been in rooms with people for over 30 years - first as a Physical Therapist, now as an energy healer. What she teaches in this workshop is not from a textbook. It is from thousands of hours of sessions, trusting what her hands and her higher self were showing her - even when the client thought she was wrong.

> It's all about the intention. It doesn't matter the gesture.
> - MILA VELAZQUEZ

WHAT THIS WORKSHOP COVERS

- [ ] Setting powerful intentions before every session
- [ ] Creating a sacred space and connecting in the quantum field
- [ ] The process of elimination - using your physical environment as a diagnostic tool
- [ ] Reading what the body is showing you through symptoms and conditions
- [ ] Holding your power when a client disagrees with your testing
- [ ] Practitioner ethics, boundaries, and energetic protection

MILA'S TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

Trust your body. Follow the subconscious. Keep your ego out of the way. The information is always there - you just have to get quiet enough to receive it.

SECTION 01

Setting Your Intention

Your intention is what starts everything. Without it, you are just going through the motions.

Before you start any session - with a client, with yourself, with a surrogate - your intention is what activates the work. It is not the magnet. It is not the chart. It is not the words you say. It is the energy you are putting out before you ever open your mouth.

Your intention comes from your heart. There are no magic words. There is no script. What matters is that it is strong, it is clear, and it is for the highest and greatest good of the person you are working with.

THE 5 PRE-SESSION CHECKS

Before entering anyone's energy field, always confirm these five things. You are asking their higher self - not their conscious mind.

1. Ready?
   Is this person ready to receive healing right now?
2. Willing?
   Is their higher self willing to allow this work to happen?
3. Capable?
   Is their system capable of processing and releasing right now?
4. Safe?
   Is it safe - for them and for you - to proceed?
5. For their highest and greatest good?
   Does this session serve their highest path?

If you get a weak response on any of these five checks, stop. Honor it. This is not failure - it is the system working exactly as it should.

SECTION 01 - CONTINUED

Setting Your Intention

Put it into your own words. This is where the knowing becomes yours.

EXERCISE

Write Your Session Intention Template

This is not a script - it is a starting point. Write the intention you will set at the beginning of every session. It should come from the heart and feel true to you.

> My intention when I enter a session is...

> What I do not allow in my sacred space is...

SECTION 02

Creating Sacred Space

You are working in the quantum field. The space you create before you begin matters.

When you connect to someone's energy field - whether they are sitting across from you or on the other side of the world - you are meeting in the quantum field. Both of your higher selves come together there. That meeting point is your sacred space.

Mila has connected to children in the next room and adults on the other side of the planet. The distance is irrelevant. What matters is the intention you set and the energetic bridge you create between your higher selves.

THE 4 STEPS TO CREATING SACRED SPACE

1. Set your intention.
   From the heart - not from a script. Be clear about what you are asking for. Call in your God, your angels, your guides. Ask for the person's guides and angels to be present with permission.
2. Create light around yourself.
   Surround your own energy field with protection and light before you ever reach out to another person's energy.
3. Build the bridge.
   Ask that your higher self and their higher self come together in the quantum field. Feel that connection. The information flows through that bridge.
4. Create light around the client.
   Surround their energy field. Set your intention for what you do not allow into that sacred space - and hold it firmly.

WHAT YOU ARE DOING

- [ ] Connecting higher selves in the quantum field
- [ ] Opening the channel for information to flow
- [ ] Establishing energetic protection for both of you
- [ ] Inviting guides and angels with permission

WHAT YOU ARE NOT ALLOWING IN

- [ ] Energies that are not for the highest and greatest good
- [ ] Entities or darkness that you cannot work with safely
- [ ] Your own ego, projections, or assumptions
- [ ] Anything that does not serve the healing

> After creating sacred space, what do I notice in my body or in my awareness?

SECTION 03

The Process of Elimination

Your higher self and theirs are connected. Their higher self already knows everything in your space.

When you have asked every question you can think of and you still cannot find what you are looking for - this is where advanced practice begins. Instead of breaking your head trying to think of the answer, you let the quantum field show you.

Because your higher self and the client's higher self are connected, their higher self already knows every book, card, chart, and crystal in your space. You ask it to guide you directly to the answer.

> "Show me and guide me to where the issue is in my space."
>
> - MILA'S WORDS TO THE HIGHER SELF

STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE

1. Ask to be shown.
   "Show me and guide me to where the issue is in my space." Then start muscle testing.
2. Locate by direction.
   "Is it on my right side? Left side? In front of me? Behind me?" Test each one until you get a strong response.
3. Narrow it down.
   Whatever is in that direction, start naming objects. "Is it my tarot cards? My oracle deck? A book? My crystals?" Go one by one until you hit strong.
4. Work within the object.
   If it's a book - go to a page. If it's cards - let one come through or cut the deck. If it's a chart - work through the columns.
5. Trust what comes through.
   When the word, image, or concept makes sense - even if it surprises you - that is your confirmation. The synchronicity is the science.

THE MORE TOOLS YOU HAVE, THE MORE THE HIGHER SELF CAN USE

Build your workspace intentionally. Books, charts, oracle and tarot cards, crystals, pendulums, printed reference guides - each one is another path the higher self can use to get information to you. You are not guessing. You are giving it options.

SECTION 04

Reading the Body's Messages

Every symptom is a story. The body is not breaking down - it is communicating.

When a client's higher self shows you a physical condition or symptom - even one the client does not currently have - it is pointing you toward the emotional energy underneath it. The condition is the metaphor. Your job is to understand what it means energetically.

Mila's physical therapy background gives her a medical foundation for this work. But you do not need a medical degree - you need the language. When the colon shows up, you know it relates to letting go. When inflammation shows up, something is eating at the person. When the throat shows up, something is not being expressed. Start building that vocabulary.

MILA'S LIVE EXAMPLE - FROM THE WORKSHOP

Working with a student named Lori, Mila used the process of elimination and landed on colitis - which Lori did not have. But colitis meant: the colon (inability to let go) plus "itis" (inflammation, something eating at you). Mila asked - is it her own inability to let go? No. Someone else's. She held strong. The trapped emotions she found were absorbed - she had been absorbing her husband's feelings of unworthiness. The body was showing the energetic truth, not the literal diagnosis.

PHYSICAL PRESENTATION	ENERGETIC / EMOTIONAL ROOT	WHAT TO EXPLORE
Colitis / Colon issues	Inability to let go - holding on to what needs to be released	What or who are they (or someone close to them) unwilling to release?
Any "-itis" (inflammation)	Something eating at the person - internal conflict or absorbed anger	Is it their own feeling or is it absorbed from someone else?
Throat / voice issues	Something unexpressed - words swallowed, truth withheld	What are they not saying? Who are they not saying it to?
Fatigue / chronic exhaustion	Carrying too much - often for others, not just themselves	Whose energy are they holding? What do they not have permission to put down?
Back pain	Lack of support - emotional, financial, or relational	Where in their life do they feel unsupported or alone with a burden?
Knee pain	Resistance to change - inflexibility in moving forward	What direction in life are they unable or unwilling to move toward?
Frequent illness / low immunity	Depleted boundaries - giving too much, absorbing too much	Where are their energetic boundaries weakest? Who is draining them?
Separation anxiety (children)	Absorbed emotional instability from the home environment	What was happening for the parents during the child's early years?

This is a starting point - not a diagnosis. Always ask the higher self to confirm. Your interpretation must be verified through muscle testing.

EXERCISE 01

Practice Session Setup

Run through this before every practice session until it becomes second nature.

This is a full guided exercise to take you from intention-setting through to baseline muscle testing. Use it for every practice session - with yourself, a partner, or a volunteer client.

GUIDED EXERCISE

Before You Begin

PRE-SESSION CHECKLIST

- [ ] Hydration check - Am I hydrated? Does my client need water before we start?
- [ ] Clear your space - Physically tidy and energetically clear the room you are working in.
- [ ] Set your intention - State it clearly from the heart. What is this session for?
- [ ] Create sacred space - Light around yourself, bridge, light around the client.
- [ ] Get permission - Ask their higher self for permission to enter their energy field.
- [ ] Run the 5 checks - Ready? Willing? Capable? Safe? For their highest and greatest good?
- [ ] Establish your baseline - Calibrate your muscle testing before you begin asking session questions.

EXERCISE 02

Process of Elimination Practice

Use this when standard muscle testing is not landing you on the answer. Trust the process.

Work through this either on yourself or with a partner. Read through the guided walkthrough first, then fill in the recording table as you go.

GUIDED WALKTHROUGH

Find the Issue Through Your Environment

1. Say (out loud or in your mind): "Show me and guide me to where the issue is in my space." Begin muscle testing.
2. Ask: "Is it on my right? My left? In front of me? Behind me?" Test each direction. Mark which one tests strong below.
3. Look at everything in that direction. Name each object and test. "Is it my cards? A book? A chart? My crystals?" Go one by one.
4. Once you find the object, work within it. Page, card, paragraph, column - keep narrowing down until you land on something specific.
5. Ask: "Do you have a trapped emotion with [word or concept]?" Use what you found as the starting point and go from there.

RECORDING TABLE - PROCESS OF ELIMINATION

DIRECTION (STRONG)	OBJECT FOUND	WHAT IT POINTED TO	EMOTION / RELEASE / NOTES

> What surprised me about this process? What made sense?

SECTION 05

When the Client Disagrees

You are not working with their conscious mind. You are working with their higher self. These are not the same thing.

The conscious mind is the part that says "that's not right" and "I don't think so" and "that doesn't make sense." And it will often say these things when the higher self is showing you something exactly right. Your job is to hold your findings - lovingly, firmly, and without apology.

> "Thank you for letting me cognitively know that you don't feel that way. But your higher self is saying yes, and I'm going to honor your higher self."
> - MILA, TO CLIENTS WHO PUSH BACK

This is not arrogance - it is the practice. Mila explains it through her physical therapy background: when a patient came in for back pain, her hands would intuitively go to the knee. Every time the patient said "there's nothing wrong with my knee." Every time, the knee was where the chain started - a misaligned patella pulling the ITB, destabilizing the glute, throwing off the pelvis. If she had listened to the patient, she would have missed the root entirely.

HOW TO HOLD YOUR POWER GRACEFULLY

- [ ] Acknowledge what they said - "I hear you, thank you for sharing that."
- [ ] Redirect to the higher self - "But your subconscious is giving me something different, and I need to honor that."
- [ ] Keep moving - do not debate, do not defend. Continue the session. The light bulb will come later.
- [ ] Invite them to sit with it - "This may not make sense right now. Come back to it in a few days."
- [ ] Trust your muscle testing - one clear strong response is worth more than their opinion.

CONFIDENCE IS PART OF THE HEALING

When a client sees that you are confident, that you have your work together, and that you are not a pushover - they have more respect for the process. Mila says it plainly: as soon as they see you are not going to be moved by their skepticism, they settle in. And then the real work can begin.

> Think of a time you doubted your own reading. What happened when you stayed with it anyway?

SECTION 06

Practitioner Ethics & Boundaries

This work is powerful. With that power comes responsibility - to your clients, and to yourself.

Energy work without ethics is energetic trespassing. You cannot enter someone's energy field without their permission. You cannot do surrogate work on a child without the parent's consent. You cannot "snoop" in someone else's business just because you have the skill to do it.

PERMISSION IS NON-NEGOTIABLE

Before you connect to anyone's energy field - ask. Even in a live workshop demonstration, Mila asks: "Do you give me permission to hook on to your energy field?" This is not a formality. It is the foundation. You do not enter without it.

ENERGETIC BOUNDARIES

- [ ] Always get explicit permission before connecting
- [ ] Do not do remote work on someone without their knowledge
- [ ] Clear your own energy field after every session
- [ ] Know when a session is complete and disconnect cleanly
- [ ] Protect yourself before each session, not after

KNOWING WHEN NOT TO WORK

- [ ] If the 5 checks come back unsafe - stop
- [ ] If you sense something is off before you even begin - trust it
- [ ] If a client needs medical care, refer them on
- [ ] If someone is on significant mental health medication - do not work on them
- [ ] A refund and a kind goodbye is always the right call when it is not safe

ANIMAL AND CHILD SURROGATE WORK

Working through a surrogate requires an extra layer of permission. For children - always get explicit consent from the parent or guardian before connecting to the child's energy. For animals - the owner's permission is required. This is not just ethics, it is energetic protection for you.

MILA'S PRACTITIONER CONTRACT WITH HERSELF

Every session, Mila puts out this intention: "To do no harm, ever. That the higher self guides and leads me. That anyone who is not for my highest and greatest good simply does not show up." This is not passive - it is an active energetic boundary she sets with intention.

Where Do You Go From Here?

You have done the foundational workshops. You have done the advanced. Now you practice.

The fastest way to build your confidence as a practitioner is to work with real people, in real sessions, and trust the process when it does not make sense yet. That is when the growth happens. The light bulb moments - the ones where a client goes quiet because something just landed for them - those are the moments that will keep you going.

ABOUT MILA

Mila Velazquez is a Certified Emotion Code Practitioner and Masters-level Physical Therapist with over 30 years of experience working with the human body. Her path moved from conventional physical therapy - where she was already working intuitively, her hands going to places the standard protocol never would - to energy healing, where that intuition finally had a framework.

She works with adults, children, and animals - in person and remotely - and has taught hundreds of students to trust their own bodies and higher selves in the healing process. Her workshops are known for being direct, practical, and genuinely transformative.
