WHAT YOU'LL NEED TODAY

- [ ] This workbook and something to write with
- [ ] A pendulum (if you have one - not required)
- [ ] A glass of water nearby
- [ ] Objects to test with: supplement, crystal, essential oil, or food item
- [ ] An open mind and a willingness to trust your body

PART 01

The Quantum Connection

How Mila connects higher self to higher self in the quantum field

Intuitive testing begins with a connection - not a physical one, but an energetic one. When Mila works, she connects her higher self to the higher self of whoever she is working with. This happens in the quantum field - a space where information flows simultaneously to both practitioner and client.

This isn't wishful thinking. It's how energy works. Information is not limited by the physical body, by geography, or by time. When you learn to connect in this way, you gain access to a form of communication that is deeper, more precise, and more honest than words alone.

> "Energy has no space, time, or distance."
>
> - MILA VELAZQUEZ

VISIBLE INTUITION

When intuitive information flows through the body, it becomes visible. You might see subtle movements in the hands, fingers, or posture of a practitioner. This is not performance - it's the nervous system translating energetic information into physical response. This is what we're learning to develop today.

MILA'S FINGER METHOD

Mila uses a simple, elegant system with her fingers to receive yes/no answers from the body:

- [ ] Index finger - signals YES (strong response)
- [ ] Pinky finger - signals NO (weak response)

This is one of many methods. Today you'll explore several and find the one that feels most natural to you.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE VS. METAPHYSICAL SCIENCE

Physical science measures what can be observed with instruments. Metaphysical science explores what is experienced through the body, the nervous system, and consciousness itself. Both are real. Both produce results. Intuitive testing lives at the intersection - using the physical body as the instrument to access metaphysical information.

> What does "connecting to your higher self" mean to you right now?

PART 02

The Sway Test

Your body as a living pendulum - learning to listen and allow

The sway test is one of the most accessible forms of intuitive testing. Your entire body becomes the instrument. When you stand still and relaxed, your body will naturally lean toward truth (yes) and away from untruth (no). It's subtle. It's real. And it takes practice to trust.

> "Allow the body to respond. Don't make it perform."
>
> - MILA VELAZQUEZ

STEP-BY-STEP METHOD

How to Perform the Sway Test

1. Stand upright, feet hip-width apart
   Plant yourself. Feel your feet on the ground. You want stability, not rigidity.
2. Relax your shoulders - loose but not sloppy
   Arms by your sides. Drop the tension. Breathe.
3. Close your eyes if comfortable
   This helps you tune into the subtle movement without visual distraction.
4. State "Show me yes" - observe which direction your body moves
   For many people, forward = yes. But not always. YOUR body will show YOU.
5. State "Show me no" - observe the opposite direction
   Backward = no for most. But some people sway sideways. There's no wrong answer.

IMPORTANT

Forward = yes and backward = no works for many people, but NOT always. Trust YOUR body's unique response. The key is to observe, not to force.

SWAY TEST - PRACTICE EXERCISES

Now It's Your Turn

PRACTICE EXERCISE 1

Calibration Statements

Stand in position. Say each statement aloud or in your mind. Record what your body does.

"MY BODY LOVES CLEAN WATER" (SHOULD BE YES)

"I AM SITTING IN A CHAIR RIGHT NOW" (SHOULD BE NO IF STANDING)

"MY NAME IS [YOUR ACTUAL NAME]" (SHOULD BE YES)

"MY NAME IS [A RANDOM WRONG NAME]" (SHOULD BE NO)

PRACTICE EXERCISE 2

Testing with Objects

Hold an object (supplement, crystal, essential oil, food) close to your chest. Stand in sway position. Ask: "Is this beneficial for my body right now?"

OBJECT TESTED

BODY RESPONSE (DIRECTION & STRENGTH)

OBJECT TESTED

BODY RESPONSE (DIRECTION & STRENGTH)

> What did you notice about your body's response? Was it subtle or strong?

PART 03

Pendulum Testing

Amplifying subtle energetic information through a physical tool

The pendulum is not magic. It is an extension of you - your intention, your nervous system, your subtle energetic communication, and your intuitive guidance. It amplifies what your body already knows, making the invisible visible through movement.

KEY PRINCIPLE

Each person's pendulum language is DIFFERENT. There are no universal rules. Your pendulum might swing clockwise for yes, counterclockwise for no - or it might swing forward-back, side-to-side, or in a completely unique pattern. You must calibrate YOUR instrument.

STEP-BY-STEP METHOD

How to Use a Pendulum

1. Hold the chain between your thumb and finger
   Let the pendulum hang still. Elbow supported on a table or steady in air.
2. Take a breath and centre yourself
   Clear your mind. Release any expectation of what the answer "should" be.
3. Say "Show me yes" - observe the movement
   It may swing clockwise, counterclockwise, forward-back, or side-to-side. Just observe.
4. Say "Show me no" - observe the opposite
   Your pendulum should move in a distinctly different pattern from your "yes."
5. Say "Show me maybe" or "Show me unclear"
   This gives you a third signal - essential for honest, accurate readings.

RECORD YOUR PENDULUM'S LANGUAGE

My "No" Looks Like:

My "Maybe/Unclear" Looks Like:

Notes / Observations:

PENDULUM TESTING - PRACTICE

Practice Questions

Now that you've established your pendulum's language, practise with questions where you already know the answer - then move to questions where you're genuinely seeking information.

PRACTICE EXERCISE

Pendulum Practice Questions

Ask each question, let the pendulum settle, then record the response.

"IS THIS SUPPLEMENT BENEFICIAL FOR ME?" (HOLD SUPPLEMENT NEAR PENDULUM)

"DO I NEED MORE WATER RIGHT NOW?"

"DO I HAVE PERMISSION TO CONTINUE TESTING?"

"MY NAME IS [YOUR REAL NAME]" (CALIBRATION - SHOULD BE YES)

YOUR OWN QUESTION:

PENDULUM RESPONSE:

> How did the pendulum feel compared to the sway test? Which felt more natural?

PART 04

Testing on Another Person

The arm test method - permission, boundaries, and gentle listening

Testing on another person is a privilege. It requires permission, a clear explanation of what you're doing, respect for their body, gentle handling, and complete neutrality. You are not there to prove anything. You are there to listen.

> "You are not there to dominate their body. You are there to listen to it."
>
> - MILA VELAZQUEZ

THE ARM TEST METHOD

Basic Arm Test - Step by Step

1. Person holds their arm straight out to the side
   Shoulder height, palm facing down. Comfortable, not strained.
2. They resist gently as you apply light downward pressure
   Tell them: "Hold firm but don't fight me." Light pressure only.
3. True statement = muscle stays stable and strong
   The arm holds. This is a "yes" response from the body.
4. False or stressful statement = muscle weakens or unlocks
   The arm gives way. Not because they're weak - because the energy field changed.

CRITICAL REMINDER

NEVER be aggressive with muscle testing. Too much force distorts the results entirely. This is about subtlety, not strength. If you're pushing hard, you're doing it wrong.

WHAT CAN BE TESTED WITH THE ARM TEST

EMOTIONAL STRESS

Identifying trapped emotions and emotional patterns affecting the body

ENERGETIC IMBALANCES

Testing for blocks, misalignments, and disruptions in the energy field

SUPPLEMENTS & REMEDIES

Testing whether a substance is beneficial for the person at this time

READINESS TO RELEASE

Checking whether the body is ready and willing to let go of what's stored

PART 4 CONTINUED - PRACTICE & ETHICS

Practising the Arm Test

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

- [ ] Ask permission: "May I test your arm?"
- [ ] Explain what you're doing and what they'll feel
- [ ] Confirm they're comfortable and ready
- [ ] Use only LIGHT pressure - this is not a strength test
- [ ] Stay neutral - release any attachment to the outcome

PRACTICE EXERCISE

TEST STATEMENT 2:

ARM RESPONSE:

PART 05

Surrogate Testing

Testing at a distance through consciousness and energetic connection

Surrogate testing means testing through one person on behalf of another - a person, an animal, or a child. This method is used when the subject is not physically present, when a child is too young to be tested directly, when testing for an animal, or when someone is too weak to participate.

The foundation of surrogate testing is this: consciousness and energetic information are NOT limited by physical distance. If this feels like a stretch, remember - Mila does this work remotely every day, with clients across the world. The results speak for themselves.

STEP-BY-STEP METHOD

How to Surrogate Test

1. Centre and ground yourself
   Take several deep breaths. Clear your mind. Be fully present.
2. Ask permission
   "Do I have permission to surrogate test for this person/animal?" Use your testing method. If no - stop. Honour the boundary.
3. Clearly identify who you're testing for
   State their name. Be specific. "I am now connecting with [name]'s energy field."
4. Connect only with their field for the highest good
   Set the intention. This is not casual - it's sacred. You are being entrusted with someone's energetic information.
5. Use your chosen method (sway, finger, pendulum)
   Proceed with your testing, interpreting the responses as belonging to the person you're connected with.

CRITICAL ETHICAL BOUNDARIES

Surrogate testing is NOT for:

- Spying on someone or checking up on them
- Bypassing consent or testing without permission
- Satisfying curiosity about someone else's private information
- Any purpose that is not for the highest good of the person being tested

> "That is not spiritual wisdom. That is energetic boundary crossing."
>
> - MILA VELAZQUEZ

Teach this method with maturity and integrity. The ability to access someone's energy field is a responsibility, not an

PART 5 CONTINUED - REFLECTION

Surrogate Testing Reflection

When might you use surrogate testing in your life? (Think about children, animals, or loved ones at a distance)

What does "permission" mean to you in the context of energy work?

How do you feel about the idea that consciousness and energetic information are not limited by physical distance?

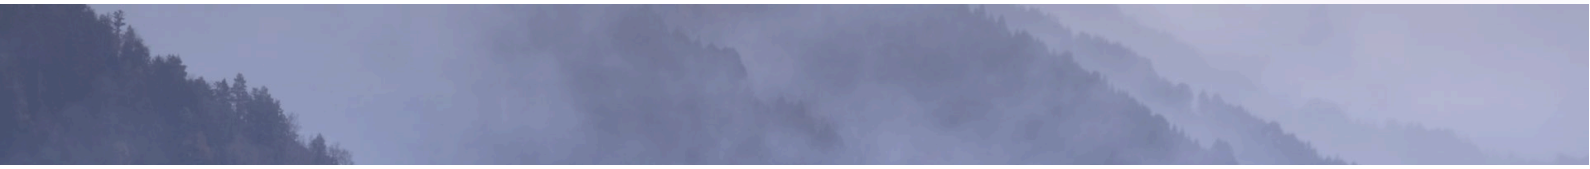
PERMISSION PROTOCOL - QUICK REFERENCE

- [ ] Always ask for energetic permission before surrogate testing
- [ ] If the answer is "no" - honour it. Stop immediately.
- [ ] State clearly who you are testing for by name
- [ ] Set the intention: "for the highest good only"
- [ ] Disconnect consciously when you are finished
- [ ] Never share what you discover without consent

PART 06

Integration & Closing

Finding your method, building daily practice



You've now explored four different methods of intuitive testing - the sway test, pendulum testing, arm testing on another person, and surrogate testing. Not every method will resonate with everyone. That's by design. The goal is to find the one that feels most natural to YOU.

> "The body is always speaking. The question is, are we still enough to listen?"
>

PART 6 CONTINUED

Your Daily Practice Plan

When done with integrity, humility, and connection, muscle testing becomes more than a technique - it becomes a language.

BUILDING YOUR PRACTICE

Like any skill, intuitive testing gets stronger with consistent practice. Start with 5 minutes a day. Use simple questions. Trust what comes through. Don't overthink it.

ACTION PLAN

My 7-Day Practice Commitment

METHOD I WILL PRACTISE DAILY

TIME OF DAY I'LL PRACTISE

DURATION (START SMALL - 5 MINUTES IS ENOUGH)

MY FIRST 3 PRACTICE QUESTIONS

HOW I'LL PREPARE (GROUNDING, BREATHING, CENTERING)

Morning Practice Ideas:

"Is my body hydrated?" / "Is this breakfast good for me?" / "Do I need rest today?"

Evening Practice Ideas:

"Did I honour my energy today?" / "Is there something my body wants to release?" / "Am I ready for sleep?"

Remember: you're not trying to get the "right" answer. You're building a relationship with your body's wisdom. Be patient. Be curious. Be honest about what you receive.

CLOSING AFFIRMATION - LED BY MILA

Place your hand on your heart. Take a breath. Say each line aloud.

"I trust my body."

"I trust truth."

"I trust clear guidance."

"I ask to receive only what serves the highest good."

"I honor what is revealed, and I honor what is not yet ready to be revealed."

Mila Velazquez

MSPT | CECP | 30+ Years Clinical Experience

I spent 30 years as a Physical Therapist watching patients carry pain that had no physical explanation. The imaging was clear. The tissue was fine. The mechanics were good. And yet - they hurt. That question led me to energy work, to the Emotion Code, and to the intuitive testing methods I teach today.

I've now combined three decades of clinical knowledge with Certified Emotion Code Practice. I understand the body from the inside out - both what science says and what science hasn't figured out yet. I take both seriously.
